

How low can you go

All around country one day we drew lots chucked another to Capital Hill scorned by millions and loved by less to lead us back to our bigoted ways

How low? How low will you go?

Don't have to be pretty to do the job
You don't need trousers to take up the Lodge
One after another they're letting us down
Still bending over for the British Crown

You didn't budge on climate change
Ignoring the science to balance the books
You'd rather Jonesy set the agenda
Preferring race riots to a carbon free future

You wouldn't say sorry to the First People Nation and the one who did met political castration
You didn't give a toss about the Balibo Five Embracing Suharto as thousands more died

Didn't give a shit about Julian Assange
Didn't give a toss about Afghanistan
Didn't care much for refugees
Or the violence they had to flee

You don't care much for intelligent discourse
Building a surplus at any cost
Spending up big on yer campaign spin There's babies overboard, you chucked them in [single strum on each line]

How low, how low can you go
